Salt Run Publishing, United States, 2013. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .The Man . . . Child cancer doctor Steve Cameron has lost faith in himself, his professional skills and in the possibility of miracles. When a baglady in Central Park talks him into going to a cabin in the Hudson Highlands for a vacation, he has little hope that it will do any good. But this isn't just any mountain cabin. It's the Gateway to Renaissance, a small village hidden in a misty valley, a village inhabited by people whose only purpose in life is to heal the broken spirits of those who enter into their misty realm. The Woman . . . Waiting for Steve in the village is Healer, Meghan Peese, an enchantingly beautiful woman who, when she sees Steve, feels an attachment far beyond what she usually feels for her Assignments. Knowing she can never leave the village with her memory intact and knowing that Steve must eventually leave to fulfill his destiny, Meghan tries to fight her attraction to this broken man, but to no avail. Love claims both their hearts, tying them together with a timeless, unbreakable bond. But Meghan has her own destiny, one that may tear them apart forever. The Miracle . . . Love and the miracle they're both been searching for awaits them. All they have to do is have the faith and trust to reach out for it.
