Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Carlose: The guards threw Tissle and I down on our knees before Sullion, or rather King Sullion, as he was now titled. It d been three days since he d assumed the throne, and, for some reason, he felt the need to have Tissle and I tracked down despite our enforced cooperation. Matthias had escaped into hiding. Where did you send her? Sullion demanded, referring to Isabelle. What is she going to do? Tissle reasoned with him, She can t come back without the tickeece, and it s here on Starline. The portal can open without the tickeece, as you well know, Sullion snapped, And she will produce heirs. Now I need that tickeece! he yelled. We don t have it! Tissle yelled back. Well, who does?! he demanded. With silence, he heaved a sigh irritably. I ll ask you one more time, he began, Where did you send Isabelle? Somewhere safe, Tissle replied sternly. Safe for who? Sullion asked, referring to himself as the alternative. You are a traitor, Sullion, I raged, And forget about Isabelle. She s the least of your worries. Oh, really? Sullion asked. You will never be safe as long I breathe. I swear it on the grave of our father. Sullion snorted. You re threatening me over the grave of my own father? he asked, Seriously? Not your father! I corrected, OUR father, I nodded toward Tissle, then continued, You . . .are no brother of mine. Sullion s eyes flared with anger, and he drew his sword abruptly. Where is the tikeece?! Not telling! I replied, not even flinching at the sight of the steel blade. Then you will join your...
