C. : The Office, 2001 OCLC Number: (OCoLC)49241501 Subject: Civil service positions -- United States. Excerpt: . . . Human Capital: Attracting and Retaining a High-Quality Information Technology Workforce other specialists - such as our Chief Statistician and Chief Accountant - with new titles and SES-equivalent benefits. We believe that three of the authorities provided in our 2000 legislation may be appropriate to other agencies and are worth congressional consideration at this time. Authority to offer voluntary early retirement and voluntary separation incentives could give agencies additional flexibilities with which to realign their workforces, correct skills imbalances, and reduce high-grade, managerial, or supervisory positions without reducing their overall number of employees. Further, the authority to establish Senior Level positions could help agencies become more competitive in the job market, particularly in critical scientific, technical, or professional areas, such as IT. Implementing reforms in human capital management will present Reform significant challenges. Among most difficult will be (1) the sustained Implementation Faces commitment
