Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from The Universal Restoration, Exhibited in Four Dialogues Between a Minister and His Friend Our Author, with great candour and extensive knowledge of the subject, discusses the doctrine of eternal punishments. He thinks that there will be a period when every sinner will be restored to the Divine favour. This doctrine is perfectly consistent with the benevolence of the Deity. It is supported by many wise and good men; nor is there any reason to suppose that it will be perverted to serve the purposes of vice and immorality. Mr. Winchester, in his defence of it, shews much charity, much humanity, and no little share of learning. The fifth Dialogue alone, which relates to the design and tendency of punishment, might furnish some little foundation for a difference of opinion; but, in a question so greatly above human attainment, the mind would be lost in the enquiry, and not greatly benefited by the discussion. The question of the universal Restoration, must be examined as Mr. Winchester has done, by the word of God, as revealed at different times, and particularly in the Gospel. N. B. A considerable part of the fifth Dialogue, being printed in the Lectures on the Prophecies, is left out of this edition, and the remaining part is included in the fourth Dialogue.
