Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from The Story of the Cotton Gin Of the four great staples which provide man with clothing, - cotton, silk, wool and flax, cotton, now the cheapest and most indispensable, was last to come into general use. It is not, however, a new article. Thousands of years ago cotton was the national cloth of India, just as linen was of Egypt. The Chinese, who had known the plant from the earliest times, began its manufacture into cloth during the thirteenth century. The earliest explorers found beautiful fabrics of cotton among the natives of Mexico and South America. In the fourteenth century - long after linens, woolens, and silks had become articles of commerce - cottons were introduced into Europe, but they were necessarily very expensive. The distance from which they were brought, and the clumsy methods of their manufacture, gave almost a monopoly to woolens, silks, and linens, until the great inventions of Hargreaves, Arkwright, and Compton, late in the last century, made cotton the ordinary clothing of the people. These inventions mark an era in the industrial development of the world. In the course of twenty years, from 1765 to 1785, the manufacture of cotton goods made greater progress than in thousands of years preceding.
