Every one who expects to write good English should master the elementary forms and principles of grammar, and this should be done in connection with composition and critical reading. Effective English and Letter Writing has been developed by the elimination of the non-essential, by the omission of much that is technical, and by emphasizing those things that have a direct bearing on the work of a stenographer, bookkeeper or office worker. Much of the material is not new, but a great deal of it is the outcome of the authors own practice in teaching the subject.
