Createspace, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. abridged edition. 280 x 216 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Eight dances by one of Spain s greatest composers, for the first time on guitar. Pablo de Sarasate s Spanish Dances, originally written for violin and piano, exemplify both the virtuosic and lyrical qualities of 19th-century Romantic music. They range from the lively Jota, filled with rapid arpeggios to the melancholy Playera with its Flamenco-inspired harmonies. The guitar adds a variety of traditional Spanish and Flamenco techniques not found in the original violin and piano score: strummed rasgueados take the place of blocked chords; scale runs are played with powerful apoyandos (rest-strokes) with fingers or thumb; and ligados punctuate what were bowed passages. This edition, arranged by guitarist William Wilson, contains full as well as abridged versions of each piece. The music is written in standard notation, it does not include tablature. It is appropriate for both intermediate and advanced Classical guitarists. Also included is Sarasate s Balada, Op. 31.
