Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from French Examination Papers Set at the University of London, From 1839 to 1871 The design of this publication is, firstly, to provide schools with a selection of Extracts from the writings of the classical and best modern authors of England and France, followed, in many instances, by suitable questions on French Grammar and Literature; secondly, to put in the hands of those who are reading for Public Examinations such Papers as have been considered, up to the present time, at the University of London, a sufficient test of the knowledge of French. Far from being intended as a cramming book, this compilation will enable Examiners to avoid giving, as sometimes has been the case in former years, pieces for translation which had been previously set And for this purpose an Index has been added, in which are given, in alphabetical order, the names of the authors from whose works the pieces are taken, and the number of the page where each is to be found. It has been thought right to give the names of the different Examiners who set the Papers. Subjoined are given the dates of the introduction of French into the various Examinations of the University of London, for the purpose of showing the increasing importance which is now attached to the study of that language.
