O-U have for a long time known the constant resolution of the French nation to preserve its ancient relations with the Ottoman Empire. My illustrious predecessor, General Bonaparte, has often declared it to you since the circumstances of the war have induced us to visit this country. He neglected no measure to dissipate the apprehensions which had been infused into the Porte, led as it was to conclude an alliance equally contrary to its interests and ours. The explanation sent by him to the court of ready given proofs of this by assassinating the magistrate of the people (Citizen Guetnic; in the isle of Arz). Deluded then, forsake these perfidious leaders! Let those chiefs, who are attached to their criminal party by false views of interest, be undeceived. Let the deserters come and...
