The wise and the good in all countries look to it for example, and in most instances look to it with hope; but there is one Giant Evil yet to be reformed, in which its example is more pernicious than beneficial, and in which its national influence has created so vast an amount of injury, that all its energies should be put forth at once, and without an hours delay, to remove the blot from its otherwise bright escutcheon. As a people, you are intelligent - the world admits it: - but, much as you have learnt, and great as is the superiority you manifest, in arts, in science, and in commerce, you are yet, as far as the majority of your numbers is concerned, steeped in the profoundest ignorance as to the extent of injury sustained by you all, in a greater or lesser degree, by what you deem the innocent and moderate use of intoxicating drinks. As a people you are wealthy - no other people on the globe are your equals in this: - but, in no country on earth is so large a portion of that wealth utterly wasted and destroyed, as it is by usages and customs prevalent among you, in all ranks of society, from the cottage to the palace - by all ages,...
